PRESS RELEASE

Neace Lukens opens operations in Atlanta with an Emerging Markets Office

Louisville, September 14, 2009: Neace Lukens is pleased to announce the opening of operations in the Atlanta, Georgia area with the addition of Dennis Robinson. Dennis joins Neace Lukens with an established block of business and a business savvy to keep it growing. By taking a proactive approach with his clients, Dennis' main objective is to offer complete solutions and outstanding service in the property and casualty arena.

Dennis Robinson graduated from the University of West Georgia with a BBA in 1988. Upon graduation he helped initiate, developed and manage a retail operation with his siblings. This small business quickly developed into a 5-store corporation. Being self-employed exposed Dennis to the necessity as well as the complexity of property and casualty insurance. The need to educate himself as a businessman developed a desire to learn more about the insurance industry. This quest led him to the decision to sell his business interest to his siblings and devote his time to the P&C Insurance Industry.

Dennis most recently was a joint owner of the Skinner Robinson Agency, which formed in 2007. Prior to that, Dennis began his insurance career in 2001 as an independent insurance contractor.

Neace Lukens is excited to progress into the Atlanta, Georgia area. Neace Lukens is a full-service insurance brokerage and consulting firm providing property and casualty insurance, employee benefits, personal lines, risk management, and surety bonds. They are recognized throughout the country as a leader in pioneering programs in insurance, risk management, and employee benefits.
